

Political Economy of Law Enforcement

Virtual Workshop, October 7–9, 2020

Wednesday, October 7

4:30–6:00 p.m. Paris (7:30–9:00 a.m. Vancouver | 11:30 a.m.–1:00 p.m. Buenos Aires)

Ambition and Introduction

The Political Economy of Law Enforcement

Matías Dewey, Cornelia Woll, Lucas Ronconi

Thursday, October 8

3:00–4:30 p.m. Paris (6:00–7:30 a.m. Vancouver | 10:00–11:30 a.m. Buenos Aires)

Playing with the Rules

Reforming to Avoid Reform: Strategic Policy Substitution and the Reform Gap in Policing

Yanilda María González

Paperwork as a Bureaucratic Game: Practices of Navigation among Russian Entrepreneurs

Maria Sakaeva

5:00–6:30 p.m. Paris (8:00–9:30 a.m. Vancouver | 12:00–1:30 p.m. Buenos Aires)

State Capacity and Revenue Collection

Street Level Bureaucrats: Tax Collectors in Egypt

Moritz Schmoll

Comparing Tax Enforcement in Italy and Spain

Donato Di Carlo

Friday, October 9

3:00–4:30 p.m. Paris (6:00–7:30 a.m. Vancouver | 10:00–11:30 a.m. Buenos Aires)

The Politics of Enforcement

Political Coalitions and Enforcement in Unequal Societies

Germán Feierherd

Selective Enforcement in Italy's War on Work

Antonella Ceccagno

5:00–6:30 p.m. Paris (8:00–9:30 a.m. Vancouver | 12:00–1:30 p.m. Buenos Aires)

Favoritism in Support of Economic Objectives

The Protectionist Politics of Globalized Regulatory Enforcement: Competition Policy and Foreign Firms

Chase Foster

Stalling the State: How Digital Platforms Profit from Blocking Enforcement and Adoption of Regulation

Joanna Mazur and Marcin Serafin